

COPPER TONES

Changing the layout created a large, glamorous bathroom with a grown-up scheme that the children can enjoy too.

Emmeline Ford, 40, and husband Jeremy, 37, bought their house in 2010 in a village outside Oxford. A collection of small rooms on the first floor was awkward and impractical, especially with two young children, Isabella, eight, and Otto, five. The solution was to create bigger bedrooms and a generous family bathroom.

CONTINUED OVER NEXT PAGE

HEATER
The dark, matt finish on the radiator coordinates with the shower's glass panels