

INSTIL DESIGN WINS PRESTIGIOUS NATIONAL KITCHEN AND BATHROOM AWARD

Local Oxfordshire designer Martina Landhed, of InStil Design, has been announced as a winner at the biggest and longest running awards event in the kitchen and bathroom industry, the kbbreview Retail & Design Awards. The award, which was presented at the black tie gala dinner at the Hilton Birmingham Metropole on Monday 27th March, was won in the Bathroom Designer of the Year – Project Cost Between £10,000 and £25,000 category.

The much anticipated event marked 23 years of the national awards, which are organised by the UK's leading trade publication for the kitchen and bathroom industry, kbbreview magazine. In attendance were many of the most esteemed names in the sector, as well as the evening's celebrity host, Jimmy Carr.

Martina Landhed, Design Director for InStil Design, says: "I am absolutely delighted to win. I am very passionate about this industry and my aim is simple – I want to inspire and help my clients realise the potential of their bathrooms. I want to create bathrooms that are stylish and practical, that my clients can enjoy every day for years to come.

"I am thrilled and proud that for the second time I have won an Award in recognition for my design. And for InStil Design, winning this award, helps us and all the people we work with to have even more confidence in our designs and products."

Tim Wallace, editor of kbbreview says: "We would like to extend our many congratulations to Martina on winning the Bathroom Designer of the Year – Project Cost Between £10,000 and £25,000 award, and wish her every success in the future. We were genuinely overwhelmed by the number of entries this year, which is fantastic to see and, as ever, the standard was outstanding, so to be named a winner is a massive accomplishment.”
